8-Invictus is the class of this field, and begins his 4-year old year having run only 6 races. Return on 20 December as the favorite from an outside post had some problems, and lost by 3/5 second. I'm sure the knee-jerk instructions to the jockey will be to keep him clear on the outside and let him roll. It is my predictus it will be 8-Invictus, the “Worst Mother-Fuckin’ Bet of the Day.”

Win, place and show, is all you gotta know.
