5-Empire Sky was given no chance in his last due to breaking last then going 9 wide. Let's face it, most jockeys are stupid people. Why go wide the entire race? If you have a bad start get to the rail and save ground; you may get a chance to travel all the way along the inside, and if not, you can always swing wide in the stretch if you have to. It's not brain surgery. This horse has proved to be the closing type, so don't count on the foregoing, and if you are in the grandstands, you will probably be able to reach out and touch him as he enters the stretch. Gets the top number, and it will probably be close but no cigar again today. 5-Empire Sky is the "Worst Mother-Fuckin' Bet of the Day."

Win, place and show, is all you gotta know.
