8-A Fine Chardonnay must be happy that 5-Percy's Bar chose to run yesterday. Brian Hernandez, Jr., went 10 wide in her last race on 10 July, and it always amazes me that principals allow a jockey to ride after taking a horse 10 wide. Listen closely, it is NEVER acceptable to take a horse 10 wide. NEVER. The only thing going 10 wide accomplishes is it shows that there is a moron in the saddle. Gets a good post off the chute, and let's hope all will be Fine with respect to the trip given by Hernandez. 8-A Fine Chardonnay is the “Worst Mother-Fuckin’ Bet of the Day.”

Win, place and show, is all you gotta know.
