8-Neoequos went off as one of the favorites at Mountaineer on 9 August in a $200,000 stakes, and was beaten by 15 lengths by a runaway winner. Race looks much worse than it is which will help our price. Cushy spot trainer Saffie Joseph, Jr., has found for this colt, who need only best 1-Encino for the gold. Exacta play is a must. Extremely disappointed in the card they put out for opening day at Belmont Park. Go figure. They are taking the Gulfstream Park approach, why offer good racing when the people are coming and betting even if we put goats on the track. 8-Neoequos is the “Worst Mother-Fuckin’ Bet of the Day.”

Win, place and show, is all you gotta know.
